

ANNUAL TRAINING SCENARIOS
(No Exception to Policy Required)

1. Report dates other than a Monday.
2. AT periods encompassing a holiday(s). IMA Soldiers should be required to work holidays falling within the AT period. Commands must evaluate these situations carefully to ensure soldiers are receiving valuable training and that the needs of the Service are being met.
3. Soldiers with a CONUS-based home address reflected on AORS, assigned OCONUS, are authorized to perform up to 19 days of AT as required by the command.
4. Soldiers with an OCONUS-based home address reflected on AORS, assigned within CONUS, are authorized to perform up to 19 days of AT as required by the command.
5. Performing AT somewhere other than the Soldier's assigned agency; commonly referred to as ILO AT.
 - a. Does require concurrence of the Soldier's assigned agency.
 - b. Assigned agency must create the training requirement
 - c. Assigned agency must create the RFO and transmit it to HRC-STL.
6. Please contact the IMA Team, at COMM 314-592-0407, DSN 892-0407, or via e-mail at: mo-ima@arpstl.army.mil with any questions regarding these policies.